

Château Haut L'Abeille, Premium, Bordeaux Blanc, 2019

Decanter

Tasted by Jane Anson (at Bordeaux, 29 May 2020)

A Burgundy-style label and bottle shape, plus the unusual blend of 50/50 Sauvignon Blanc and Gris makes this stand out from the entry-level whites. It's fresh and clean, bright fruit flavours, soft but liting acidities, easy to drink and recommend.

The 2019 Haut L'Abeille Blanc is pretty, aromatic dry white to drink now and over the next few years. White flowers, mint, green pear and sage all grace this appealing wine.

REVIEW

Coming from the Famille Chevalier group, the 2019 Château Haut L'Abeille Premium Blanc reveals a light gold color as well as exotic notes of honeyed grapefruit and lemons. These carry over to the palate, where the wine is medium-bodied and has bright, juicy acidity, moderate depth, and a solid finish. Drink it over the coming couple of years.

A simple white with sliced apples, honey and hints of cream. Medium body. Creamy texture.

Bright straw yellow colour. Ethereal nose with aroma reminiscent of pineapple, peaches and grapefruit peel. Hints of vanilla in the background. On the palate well balanced with crisp acidity, succulent fruit, hints of toasting aroma and mild spices in the background. Lingering fruit in the aftertaste.

Jaune clair aux légers reflets dorés. Bouquet fruité et épicé, de bonne intensité, avec des notes d'agrumes et de poivre blanc. Attaque friande et juteuse. En bouche le vin est racé, croquant et fruité. Que de fraîcheur et de sapidité dans ce vin. 2021-2028
