2019

Ratings & tasting notes

vinous (89-91)_{pts}

« The 2019 Lafleur de viaud is lush, dense and super-expressive. Raspberry jam, rose petal, spice and blood orange all meld together in the glass. This sumptuous, plush Lalande de Pomerol offers tons of immediacy. »

THE WINE CELLAR INSIDER

« Deep and chocolately, with layers of ripe, sweet, earthy, fleshy plums and black cherries. This is already good now and it is only going to get better with age. »

« Dark purple colour with violet hue and black core. Aromatic nose with ripe blackberries and hints of forest berry jam, discreet spiciness. Great elegance on the palate, juicy fruit, ripe and almost silky tannins, well made with convincing length. »

WINE ADVOCATE (86 - 88)

« Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2019 Lafleur de Viaud offers up a good intensity of black raspberry, black cherry and warm plums scents with touches of lavender, aniseed and fertile loam. Medium bodied, the palate has just enough bright, juicy fruit with a chewy texture and refreshing finish. »
