

CLOS 126 Pomerol

2019

Ratings & tasting notes

vinous (91-93)<sub>pts</sub>

« The 2019 Clos 126 is a rich, heady Pomerol that shows off the more extroverted side of Pomerol to great effect. Unctuous and full-bodied, the 2019 offers up inky dark fruits, chocolate, new leather, spice and blackberry jam. The style is decidedly flamboyant, and yet all of the elements are so well-balanced. A rich, substantial finish rounds things out nicely. »

Robert Parker (90 - 92)<sub>+</sub>

« Opaque purple in color, the 2019 Clos 126 comes prancing out of the glass with alluring scents of black forest cake, black raspberries and morello cherries with hints of wilted roses, Darjeeling tea, bergamot and pencil shavings plus a waft of cloves. Medium to full-bodied, the palate has a typical Pomerol backbone of sturdy, rounded tannins and just enough freshness to support the muscular black fruits, finishing on an earthy note. »

JEB DUNNUCK 90-92

« A terrific effort, the 2019 Clos 126 boasts a deeper purple/ruby hue as well as complex notes of spiced cherries, loamy earth, tobacco, and underbrush. It's nicely textured, medium to full-bodied, has great tannins, and beautiful length. It's going to evolve for 10-15 years. »

91p by Markus Del Monego
MW

« Deep purple colour with violet hue and black core. Well structured nose, ripe blackberries and hints of blackcurrant leaf. Discreet spiciness in the background. On the palate well structured with rather velvety tannins, ripe fruit and discreet spiciness, round and quite rich in the finish. »